

Five Hundred Children to Give Service

Over 500 children will take part in the Sunday School Christmas service at Christ the King Lutheran Church, 2709 W. 182nd St., Sunday evening. During the nursery and primary Sunday School service at 5 p.m. will be Mrs. Norval Thompson. The junior and senior Sunday School service at 7:30 p.m. will be under the guidance of Mrs. Bill Sands.

Special music for both services, which have as their theme, "Love Came Down at Christmas" will be provided by the Junior Choir under the direction of Mrs. Edna Kennedy. Organist for the services will be Mrs. Dick Martin. On Christmas Eve a candle-light and carol service will be held at 11:30 p.m. The music of Christmas will be sung by the Senior choir with Don Green as the soloist, Robert Cairns as choir director, and Mrs. Clifford Brodman as organist. Both choirs will sing at the Festival service on Christmas Day at 10 a.m. Meditation on Christmas Eve and the sermon on Christmas Day will be delivered by the Rev. Maynard Madsen, pastor of the church.

'Voice Of Christmas' To Be Heard

Sermon topic chosen by the Rev. William K. Schatz for Sunday to be delivered at the worship service beginning at 10:45 a.m. at Seaside Community (R&R) United Church of Christ, located at Ocean Ave. and 230th St., is "Questions Men Live By." In the evening, beginning at 7 o'clock, the annual Christmas program will be presented by the Church School. The 'Voice of Christmas' will be enacted by the Junior and Senior classes. Primary and kindergarten classes will also participate in the program, which will be under the direction of Mrs. Clyde Martin, Church School superintendent. After the program, the group will go caroling, returning to the church later for refreshments. A candlelight service will be held in the sanctuary Christmas Eve, beginning at 11 a.m. Both the Chancel Choir, directed by Mrs. L. Bushell, and the Junior Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Clyde Martin, will perform. This is the second year this event is being held. Marine Sgt. Norman L. Perry, son of Mrs. Ruth Conn, of 244 E. 233rd St., is serving with the Third Marine Aircraft Wing at the El Toro Marine Corps Air Station, Santa Ana.

Outdoor Holiday Pageant To Be Presented Nightly

"Christ of Christmas," the annual outdoor pageant of the South Bay Church of God, 17691 Yukon Ave., will take place nightly on the church grounds from now until Christmas Eve at 7 and 8 p.m., with the exception of Sunday, when the chancel choir will present a Christmas cantata, "Love Transcending," at the regular 7:30 p.m. service. A host of heavenly angels who herald the coming of the Christ child will be resplendent in glittering array atop the church building. Live animals will add to the reality of the setting, and the star of Bethlehem will beam down as tape recording presents the words and music of the pageant. Music on the recording is by Geraldine Lanning, an Orca Bell, organist and pianist respectively, with songs by the Chancel choir under the direction of LaWanda White. Rev. Clifford Tierney is recorded a narrator. Eighteen costumed characters will represent Mary, Joseph, King Herod, the angel Gabriel, the three wise men, and the shepherds. The nightly presentations are open to the public.

Adult Choir To Present Yule Program

Under the direction of Edwin Isbell, minister of music and education, the adult choir of Narbonne Ave. Baptist Church, Lovett, will present its annual Christmas music program at services to be conducted at 7:30 p.m., Sunday. Mrs. John Knoner will be accompanist. Sermon topic for the 9:30 and 10:50 a.m. services will be "The Savior is Born," it was announced today by Robert A. Wells, pastor. Treats will be provided for the youngsters of the church at a Christmas party to be held in the youth building Tuesday evening.
